

ONE HUNDRED SECOND LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 289

Introduced by Ashford, 20; Coash, 27; Council, 11; Harr, 8; Larson, 40;
McGill, 26.

PURPOSE: To study the new approaches to address the undocumented immigrant population that have been initiated at both the state and local level around the country since the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature completed its report on LR 362 in December of 2008. The committee should research action by state and local governments across the county in response to immigration issues, including the economic impact of such action and any resulting litigation. The committee should research the progress toward federal immigration reform, if any. The committee should research recent action by nongovernmental organizations to promote reasonable, humane, and commonsense public policy and public discourse on immigration issues in the United States.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.
