Summary of purpose and/or changes:

Under current law, a local governing body may, with at least a two-thirds vote, allow for consumption on a licensed premises within the governing body's jurisdiction until 2 a.m. LB 888 would allow a local governing body, with at least a two-thirds vote, to allow for the purchase of alcohol for consumption off a licensed premises until 2 a.m. In other words, LB 888 would allow a local governing body with a two-thirds vote to approve, in addition to on-sale until 2 a.m., off-sale until 2 a.m. or on- and off-sale until 2 a.m.

Russ Karpisek, Chairperson
