Summary of purpose and/or changes:

LB244 would amend 29-2103 to provide that a motion for new trial based on new evidence which was not available at the original trial shall be filed within a reasonable time after the discovery of the new evidence.

Under current law, this type of motion must be filed within a reasonable time after the discovery of the new evidence, but cannot be filed more than three years after the date of the verdict.

Relevant statutes:

29-2101. New trial; grounds.

29-2102. New trial; affidavits; when required

29-4123. DNA testing results; effect

Sec. 29-2101(5) provides:

A new trial, after a verdict of conviction may be granted, on the application of the defendant, for any of the following grounds affecting materially his or her substantial rights (5) newly discovered evidence material for the defendant which her or she could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial.
