This bill would modify jurisdiction of juvenile courts and change provisions relating to temporary custody and disposition of juveniles.

The Attorney General estimates no fiscal impact from this bill.

The Supreme Court notes that this bill could result in a General Fund expenditure reduction. See their response for additional details.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB893 modifies juvenile court jurisdiction for juveniles younger than eleven. Youth in this age group represent less than .5% of the total number of juveniles supervised by Probation. It is assumed for this fiscal note, that such juveniles would no longer be supervised by Probation. As a result, there is the potential for a minimal reduction in General Fund expenditures for juvenile services. Estimating the reduction, however, is difficult. Probation has not supervised this age group long enough to establish any on-going data on the number of juveniles served and the type and cost of services used that can be used to provide a solid estimate.
