4 prisoner or detainee known to be pregnant, including during labor, 5 delivery, or postpartum recovery or during transport to a medical 6 facility or birthing center, unless the administrator makes an 7 individualized determination that there are extraordinary circumstances 8 as described in subsection (2) of this section.

9 (2) Restraints for an extraordinary circumstance are only permitted 10 if the administrator makes an individualized determination that there is 11 a substantial flight risk or some other extraordinary medical or security 12 circumstance that dictates restraints be used to ensure the safety and 13 security of the prisoner or detainee known to be pregnant, the staff of 14 the detention facility or medical facility, other prisoners or detainees, 15 or the public, except that:

16 (a) If the doctor, nurse, or other health professional treating the 18 used, any detention facility employee accompanying the prisoner or 19 detainee shall immediately remove all restraints;

23 and immediate flight risk;~~and~~

24 (c) Under no circumstances shall any restraints be used on any

31 or birthing center for labor or childbirth, no detention facility

1 employee shall remain present in the room during labor or childbirth
2 unless specifically requested or approved by medical personnel. A 3 detention facility employee may ask medical personnel to allow such 4 employee to remain present. If a detention facility employee's presence 5 is requested or approved by medical personnel, the employee shall, if 6 practicable, be female.

7 (4) If a prisoner or detainee known to be pregnant is transported to 8 a medical facility or birthing center and restraints are used, the 9 administrator of the detention facility shall inform the relevant staff 10 at the medical facility or birthing center of the risks and dangers of 11 removing the restraints from the specific prisoner or detainee.

12 (5) If restraints are used on a prisoner or detainee known to be 13 pregnant pursuant to subsection (2) of this section:

14 (a) The type of restraint applied and the application of the 15 restraint must be done in the least restrictive manner necessary; and

16 (b) The administrator shall make written findings within ten days as 17 to the extraordinary circumstances that dictated the use of the 18 restraints. These findings shall be kept on file by the detention

21 prisoner or detainee shall be made public under this section without the 22 prisoner's or detainee's prior written consent.

26 person or persons shall not, (i) be required to have visited the prisoner
27 or detainee at any detention facility prior to serving as a support 28 person, or (ii) be denied eligibility to serve as a support person solely 29 on the basis of a prior criminal conviction or that such person is 30 currently on probation, conditional release, parole, or post-release 31 supervision.

1       (b) If such prisoner or detainee's request for a support person or 2 persons is denied, such denial shall be in writing within five calendar 3 days after the correctional facility's receipt of the request and shall
