RADIO/TELEVISION/INTERNET SOURCES FORM

	Y	our name
		Date Time
	Т	he problem
		rce of information
		s might be a website, television or radio news program, documentary, interview show,
	or so	ome other program that addresses the problem.)
	Cons	sider the following questions as you gather information from your sources:
2.	Is th	nis a problem that is thought to be important? Why?
3.	Wha	at policy, if any, does government now have to deal with this problem?
	If a	a policy does exist answer the following questions:
	•	What are the advantages of this policy?
	•	What are the disadvantages of this policy?
	•	How might the policy be improved?
	•	Does it need to be replaced? Why?
	•	What disagreements about this policy, if any, exist in our community?