

TASK THREE – PROPOSING A PUBLIC POLICY

Next, you will need to propose a public policy to deal with the problem. It must not violate the U.S. Constitution or your state’s constitution. It may be one of the alternative policies you discussed earlier, a modification of one of those policies, or it may be your own original idea. Answer the questions below and complete the Constitutional Opinion Form on pages 36–37.

1. We think the best public policy to deal with this problem is

2. The advantages of this policy are

3. The disadvantages of this policy are

4. Identify the level of government that would be responsible for carrying out your proposed policy. Explain why this level of government is responsible.

5. The policy being proposed is constitutional because (Use your answers from the Constitutional Opinion Form to complete this item.)
